One of the highlights of the tour is The Hopewell Rocks, in the Bay of Fundy with the highest tides in the world. You will love the people, history, hospitality, and food on this unforgettable tour.

John Denver sang about it. "Almost Heaven, West Virginia, Blue Ridge Mountains, Shenandoah River...to the place I belong, West Virginia...take me home country roads." Our Rural Home

It was fall of 1979, over 40 years ago, when I entered Notre Dame Law School. In the first few months a group of about 11 of us developed a friendship that has lasted to this day. We continue to enjoy each other's company and try, with varying levels of success, to get together annually.

In late April this year I hosted about three quarters of the group at our family farm on the Gasconade River near Belle. They came from cities scattered across the country and none had been to rural Missouri before. For most, it was almost like traveling to a foreign country and they admitted they had no idea of what to expect.

By departure time three days later, they were universal in their admiration of rural Osage County. What we live with daily, and often take for granted, was wondrous to sixty some year-old professionals who rarely venture very far outside their urban homes. Their perspective reminded me of how blessed we are to be able to live and work in central Missouri. Having lived in various cities before moving back to Linn some 31 years ago, it is certainly my opinion that the relative simplicity of our rural lives, while certainly not a perfect existence, is a much better alternative than life in urban America.

And so, while it may seem strange to write about the comforts of home in a newsletter devoted to our travel club, I think we sometimes need to be reminded to pause our daily routines and reflect on those familiar things we too frequently take for granted. Doing so will help make both your trips with Mary Ann, and your return home from them, even better.

CLUES:

1. A famous Missourian was born in this town.
2. City was laid out in 1887 and named after the wife of a railroad man.
3. The second town we visit was laid out in 1836 by an English immigrant who was also a Methodist minister.

Mackinac Island and the Grand Hotel

June 12-16, 2023

Mackinac Island is known for its pristine beauty, cool, low-humidity summers, automobile-free streets, horse-drawn carriages, bicycles and fudge stores! June is the best time to visit when thousands of beautiful and fragrant lilacs adorn the island. Lodging and dining at the quintessential luxury resort, the Grand Hotel, with its famous front porch, will be a treat you won't ever forget.

On our way to Mackinac Island we'll stop in Springfield, IL at the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum. Here you will experience history like never before. Connect with Lincoln and his family through artifacts that can't be found anywhere else in the world.

When we arrive on Mackinac Island no motorized vehicles are allowed on the island, so horse-drawn wagons will transport us from the pier downtown to the beautiful Grand Hotel for a two-night stay. We've planned our trip to coincide with "lilac time" on the island. You will be enchanted by the thousands of colorful lilac bushes you'll see in bloom along the way! Sparkling white against the green hillsides, the Grand Hotel is an unspoiled reminder of the glory of bygone days. Your stay will likely be one of the most memorable travel experiences you will ever have! Get settled in your uniquely appointed room and explore the hotel and its expansive grounds before your first of four wonderful meals served in the elegant Grand Hotel dining room. (Coats and ties are required for gentlemen after 6:30 p.m.)

Our full day on Mackinac Island begins with a narrated horse-drawn wagon tour of this beautiful, unspoiled island. The afternoon will be free for individual pleasures such as shopping in town, sampling the island's famous fudge, pedaling your way around the island or just soaking up the ambiance at the Grand Hotel as you sit in a rocking chair on its 660-foot-long porch enjoying the gorgeous water views.

Returning home, we'll visit the Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park in Grand Rapids. Our final day of travel includes a scenic tour of the Amish countryside followed by a tasty home-cooked meal and tour at a local Amish farm in Arthur, IL.
