

Missouri Bankers Foundation Scholarship Application

The Missouri Bankers Foundation established a scholarship program for high school students pursuing a banking-related degree program in college. These scholarships help prepare the next generation of Missouri banking leaders. The foundation currently awards seven one-time $1,000 scholarships.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be high school seniors who have exhibited academic achievement and/or economic need.
- Applicants must enroll as a full-time college student in a program leading to a major in a field related to banking.

Application Materials

To be considered, the applicant must submit the following.

- completed scholarship application signed by an officer at an MBA member bank
- two letters of recommendation
- one-page personal essay
- resume of extracurricular activities
- most recent official high school transcript including ACT scores

The essay should address the following.

- academic achievement
- initiative
- reasons for pursuing a banking-related career
- the impact of this scholarship on your future plans

Decisions made by the scholarship selection committee are final.

Scholarship recipient will be notified by May 2023 and will be announced in The Missouri Banker magazine. Scholarship checks are mailed directly to each recipient's college or university.
