

Holiday Season Kick Off with Daniel O'Donnell

The Irish Sensation

November 13, 2024

Known for his exceptional voice and boyish charm, the irresistible crooner has played to packed audiences for years and is one of the most requested and attended entertainers to ever take to the Branson stage. You will get to hear your favorite music, from Irish to Country! On stage Daniel is known to share some laughs, inspiration, and stories of his life and the music he performs – connecting with the audience in a way few people in show business can replicate.

Before the performance, you will feast on comfort food in a family-style setting at Paula Dean's Family Kitchen.
