

1776 The Musical

at Arrow Rock Lyceum Theatre

July 1, 2026

Join us for a day steeped in history, harmony, and hometown charm as we travel to Arrow Rock to experience the acclaimed musical 1776 at the Lyceum Theatre!

As our nation celebrates its 250th anniversary, there's no better time to revisit the moment that started it all. 1776 brings the founding fathers to life with wit, warmth, and unforgettable music – capturing the tension, humor, and triumph behind the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Before the curtain rises, we'll enjoy a delicious lunch at J. Huston's Tavern, Missouri's oldest continuously operating restaurant. Stepping inside feels like a trip back in time – complete with hearty fare, rustic charm, and a warm welcome that perfectly compliments the day's patriotic spirit.

Set in the National historic Landmark village of Arrow Rock, this trip blends the best of Missouri's heritage with the magic of live theatre. From cobblestone streets and historic storefronts to the stirring songs of 1776, it's a day designed to inspire pride, reflection, and fun with friends.
