

Elvis & Elton

The Concert That Should Have Been

at the New Theatre & Restaurant

March 18, 2026

Get ready for a dazzling day of music, memories, and mouthwatering food! Join us for an unforgettable trip to The New Theatre & Restaurant to see “Elvis & Elton – The Concert That Should Have Been” – a lively tribute show imagining what it would’ve been like if two of music’s greatest legends had shared the stage.

But that’s not all! Following the performance, we’ll take a fascinating guided tour of the 1950’s All Electric House – a charming time capsule filled with mid-century modern design, retro appliances, and a glimpse into the future as it was imagined in the 50s. It’s a delightful step back in time that’s sure to spark memories and smiles.

From “Blue Suede Shoes” to “Rocket Man”, you’ll be tapping your toes and singing along to hit after hit. Enjoy a relaxing afternoon with friends, great food, sensational live entertainment and a walk down memory lane. Don’t miss this unique blend of music, history, and friendship!
