Join us as we welcome Missouri historian and author James Erwin for an entertaining presentation: "Movies Made in Missouri". While Missouri may not be the first place that comes to mind when you think of the movie industry, the Show Me State has played a starring role in nearly 100 films over the years.

Through film clips, movie stills, vintage posters, behind-the-scenes photographs, and present-day images of filming locations, Jim will take us on a fascinating journey through Missouri's cinematic history. Discover how Missouri served as the backdrop for productions ranging from the earliest films of Tom Mix and Walt Disney to more recent movies featuring stars such as Henry Fonda, George Clooney, Ben Affleck, and Kevin Costner.

Along the way you'll hear stories about blockbuster hits, forgotten flops, famous actors, and hidden gems that were filmed right here in Missouri. Whether you're a movie buff, a history enthusiast, or simply curious about the stories behind the scenes, this presentation promises to be informative and entertaining.

Don't miss this fun look at the movies, stars, and stories that helped put Missouri on the big screen!
